

Department of Economics

ARKA JAIN University

A Session on GST

Mr. Jigar Rupani, Fellow Company Secretary – Senior Lecturer, Department of Commerce and Management was invited by the Department of Economics to take a session on Goods and Services Tax (GST). He enlightened the students of BA (Hons.) Economics about the basic provisions of GST. They were explained about the mechanism in which GST functions and how do we see it in various places around us in real life scenario. They were also told about the various compliances that are required to be done by business entities as per the GST Act. The students also asked various queries on the topic which were replied satisfactorily. The session was held in the conference hall of the university on Nov 22nd, 2018.

