

8th September 2018

The department of Commerce & Management (PG), under the banner of 'Knowledge Manthan Saturday' has successfully conducted the extempore competition on 8th September 2018

The students of MBA (Sem-1) participated in the event with the great enthusiasm. It was the first event for first semester MBA students to come up and speak on the stage. The student-coordinators – Sania, Astha, Rohit and Vivek worked very hard to run the event successfully.

The program started by 8.30 a.m Ms. Astha, Student (MBA Sem-1) introduced the event by stated rules and regulations. Prof. Rajkumari, H.O.D Department of English, Dr. Arun Tiwari, P.C Department of Commerce & Management and Dr. Sonia Riyat Organizer of the event judged the students on different parameters like – Relevance to the topic, Fluency, Pronunciation & Expression, Eye-contact, Time-Management etc.

Values and Ethics are the keys of the success – said by Professor Rajkumari. She suggested the students to be focused on achieving the goals and execute the plan with a greater care. She has shown her interest to take personality development workshop / stress management workshop for the MBA students that would help them in grooming themselves.

Finally, Dr Arun Tiwari announced the result. Subrata Laik won the event by scoring 99 out of 150 whereas Uday Shankar Mishra was the runner up who scored 95 out of 150. He congratulated all the students in taking part.

Ms. Sania, student (MBA Sem-1) presented the vote of thanks and the program ended by 9.50 a.m.

