

One should not Seek Happiness from others' Perspective: Aditya Ranjan

Today, in the fourth address of the webinar series on the "Mantras of Success and Happiness" organized by the three NSS units of Arka Jain University, IAS officer and Joint Secretary of the Rural Development Department, Government of Jharkhand, Mr. Aditya Ranjan, addressed the NSS volunteers, Program Officers, Teachers and students from various colleges and universities of the state. He spoke on various aspects of success and happiness.

He said that we can conquer our difficult times by the power of our faith. He said that by avoiding laziness, a person can achieve success under any circumstances by considering karma as the prime. Aditya Ranjan also said that we should not seek our happiness from the eyes of others.

In his statement regarding happiness, he said that happiness of life is based on the quality of one's thoughts. He further said that happiness comes when ambitions end.

Earlier, the University's NSS Coordinator Mr. Paras Nath Mishra welcomed the guest and said that the NSS volunteers of Arka Jain University have played an important role in social work in this epidemic and the Program Officers of the three units have given proper guidance to the students.

Vice Chancellor Prof. SS Razi, Director Mr. Amit Srivastava and Director (Campus) Dr. Angad Tiwari also congratulated NSS units for such programs.

NSS Program Officer Dr. Manoj Pathak conducted the inaugural session and Prof Paras Nath Mishra proposed the vote of thanks. Prof. Rajeev Sinha and Prof Prerna Rai were also instrumental in providing technical support to make it a success.

