NOTICE

We are receiving multiple enquiries from students and parents regarding the placement in Toujours Peritus Consultancy Private Limited and also in few other companies.

In this regard, University would like to clarify that:

- All terms and conditions of the employment as communicated to university by any employer is being communicated to students before appearing for any campus placement opportunity
- This communication is sent to students in the form of placement notices, where important terms and conditions of employment is clearly mentioned
- Companies also brief students about terms and conditions of employment through their pre placement talk before the interview
- All students are instructed to understand the terms and conditions clearly before joining the company as university does not have any role in that
- You are advised to join any company after complete understanding of the details of the company and its terms and conditions.
- Once a student joins the company, students are bound by the terms and conditions agreed between student and employer.
- University will not be responsible for any matter / dispute arises between student and employer of what so ever in nature.

By order,
