Arka Jain University, Jharkhand, held a seminar on the benefits of the registration small and micro industries. All the students were led by the MSME Development Institute under the leadership of Pompi Das Sengupta. The Prime Minister of India is trying to make the people of all sections together develop the country. A large part of the money for the development of the country comes from trade in the country. Therefore, the government is committed to helping people in business. This scheme has been started to promote small and micro industries. Under which many small industries benefit. Government of India has launched several schemes to promote small scale industries, which can be availed through MSME registration. There are many government schemes that cannot be availed without registering MSME, so it is very important to get it done.
