Technical events like exhibitions, seminars, workshops by senior experts in various subjects give more ideas. It expands your thinking. It is said that thinking power when stretched does not come back to original state. More you grasp more you learn. Such events give you a lot of new knowledge. Certain learning can influence you to change. There is a vast gap in education and actual skills required in industry. Knowledge gained in technical events makes you smarter and is useful for interviews at a later date. It gives you more information on career options thereby expanding your choice. Interactive workshops give you opportunities to express yourself, enhance communication skills, open up leadership qualities. ARKA JAIN University department of Engineering has organized Inter College Technical fest- Activities are Science Exhibition, Inspire ON, Robo War etc. The Event was inaugurated by chief guest Dr. S. K. Singh, EX Chief SNTI, Jamshedpur.
