On 16th March 2019, ARKA LITERARY CLUB (Department of English, Arka Jain University) organized a workshop on 'LITERARY DEVICES' in its premises. Workshop conducted by PROF. DR. RAJEEV DAYAL (Asst. Proff. English, Kolhan University). Literary device is a technique a writer uses to produce a special effect in their writing. These are tools and techniques employed by authors to communicate effectively with their audiences. Skilled use of literary devices brings richness and clarity to a text. The session mainly focused on the various literary devices that relate to English Writing. The students benefitted from the session which will help them to enhance their literary skills and foster their creative zeal. Besides being extremely resourceful and informative, the workshop was very interactive and motivating. The Club looks forward to conduct more of such workshops to broaden literary prospective for holistic development.
