KNOWLEDGE SHARING PROGRAMME

Knowledge Sharing Program a platform where students from different streams can share their views, ideas, pulsating desire and experiences from different literature and continue healthy and meaningful discussions on shared views. It is held on a weekly basis (on Saturdays) under the guidance of Professor Paras Nath Mishra.

It is an opportunity for the students of Arka Jain University to develop their oratory skills as well as communication skills. Every week one gets to learn about different ideas and methodologies to implement in everyday life.

Series II – 30-05-2020

S.no	Name of the speaker	Topic
1.	Riya Singh	The Magic of Thinking Big by David J Schwartz
2.	Harsha Aray	Seven Habits of Highly Effective People by Stephen Covey
3.	Priyanka Chakraborty	Knowledge is Power,Unity is Strength.

Motive of the speakers

Speaker 1 – Believe you can succeed and you are half way to it. Be human, thinking that it may happen will make it so. Ignore the haters. One step at a time. Do more not less.

Speaker 2 Begin with the end in mind.Be disciplined, be proactive. Put first things first. Think Win – Win. Seek first to understand and then be understood. Sharpen the Saw.

Speaker 3 – We should all be united in order to win

The image is a composite of two parts. On the left is a diagram titled "SEVEN HABITS OF HIGHLY EFFECTIVE PEOPLE". The diagram features a central circle with seven colored segments radiating outwards, each connected to a habit: 1. Be Proactive (orange), 2. Begin with the End in Mind (red), 3. Put First Things First (blue), 4. Think Win-Win (dark blue), 5. Seek First to Understand, Then to be Understood (pink), 6. Synergize (green), and 7. Sharpen the saw (light blue). On the right is a screenshot of a WhatsApp group chat titled "Participants (13)". The chat shows a list of 13 participants with their names and profile pictures. At the bottom of the chat, there are buttons for "Invite", "Report", and "Mute All".
