“Adieu Batch 2018”, a virtual platform to bid adieu to the Graduates of English Department, School of Humanities, Arka Jain University. The program was all about thanking the batch and wishing them all best of luck for their new journey. It was held on Google meet at 10 a.m. on 3rd of July, 2021.

Adieu was wished and students were blessed, first by the Vice Chancellor of the university and there were many other invited department heads also who showered their good wishes to the newly graduates. The Programme Coordinator of the department also wished the graduates. The event was then taken over by the student coordinators, Ankita, Blossom, Sweta, Gurnoor, Isha, Shifa, Priya, Eram, Kartik, Tejaswini and Dipti from the department. There were events sets for the their seniors like fashion show, a dance, a chat show, nostalgic share, poetic expression of the three long years, to wrap up the passing memories, a song mash up was presented too. The event brought out the different titles to some create achievers like, Best Hair (Ms Swati), Best Attair (Ms Ritika), Best Close-Up (Ms Urmi), Best Personality (Mr Tushar), Best Student (Ms Kiran-Female) And Best Student (Mr Ritwik-Male).

The special moment of graduation, the Adieu Batch 2018, came to an unending end where the freshly grads felt the sorrow of the past but were also very excited with the formal honour of being a graduate. WISHING THEM ALL GOOD LUCK, the event unwontedly had to come to an end. The faculty members of the department and the gathered juniors expressed their gratitude to all the virtual audiences.

The Dept of English sincerely extends its gratitude to the other faculties and management heads for their wishes and support for organising the webinar.
