Seminars on contemporary issues among students were discussed for the students of B.Com (H) semesterII on 30th March, 2021. The benefits of efficiently dealing with contemporary issues were explained to the students during the online class. Students got an insight on the importance of being updated with major issues and the key elements to be considered while contemplating it with current affairs. The students actively participated throughout the session and were continuously raising questions which ensured active participation. Elevating student awareness of global issues is increasingly important as the countries of the world become more interdependent. Today's students also need an understanding of the world's economy, politics, social structure, and environment in order to make the best decisions about how to live their own lives after university level and beyond. At the same time consuming domestic news with a critical eye is vital to enhancing democracy and defeating intolerance. More than ever, an appreciation for news and our civic institutions is a key step toward self-empowerment and advancement. We need to study contemporary issues for us to be equipped what is happening to our environment and it is possible that we experienced and will experience it. In studying we can be able to know on how to prevent this kind of issues.
