Webinar on Student motivation: Drama vs Film vs Commercial

An initiative towards career learning and young adults to know about life and the significance of good career choice, the Arka Literary Club, organised a WEBINAR ON DRAMA VS FILM VS COMMERCIAL, on 13th of March, 2021 through Google meet. The Department of English organised and conducted the webinar for the undergraduate students of Arka Jain University. The webinar was conducted by the student coordinators, Ms Ankita Verma (Sem IV), Ms Blossom (Sem IV) Ms Satpreet Kaur (Sem II) under the guidance of Dr. Rupa Sarkar, Asst. Professor, Dept of English.

The speaker, Ms Saroni Roy, is an Actor, Co-Chair, Equity- Diversity-MEAA and Social Entrepreneur based in Sydney. She has over 15 years of experience in journalism and led the PR mandate for Tech giants like HP, Google, SAP, to name a few. She is a Cambridge University CELTA graduate and is an experienced ESL & Business ESL teacher. A sought after influential speaker, she's a Global Mentor for several individuals worldwide. She mentored the students in an interactive manner where they learnt from her experience sharing about never to give up and be grateful for having a life to do much in life.

The Dept of English and the Arka Literary Club sincerely extend its gratitude to the other faculties and management heads for their wishes and support for organising the webinar.
