Finanza- The Finance Quiz

Description & Flow of Events

As a part of the Knowledge Manthan Saturday, MBA Department of ARKA JAIN University, a management quiz “Finanza”- The Finance Quiz was organized on 7.8.2021. A number of students from MBA departments participated in the event. The event began with a finance round in which 4 teams participated. Each team had at one members and the selected teams then participated in various round of question and answers. The questions were so tough that the teams had to test their minds to answer them.

The objective of finance quiz is to understand the concept of finance in the modern business world centers around maximizing efficiency in the acquisition and use of financial resources. The use of integrative financial systems and controls enable you to monitor and regulate the use of funds in your business. The success of your business depends on your ability to minimize wastage and pilferage of resources in your financial operations and strategic activities. Effective financial management includes setting goals and benchmarks an accounting department can analyze each month or quarter. These analyses can help determine specific areas where problems are occurring. For example, cost of production might be higher than budgeted. An investigation might reveal that a company's machinery needs to be repaired or replaced, or that new maintenance procedures need to be introduced.

The team 2 of MBA semester III won the quiz while the team 1 from MBA semester III was the runner up of the competition. The event culminated with distribution of certificates to the respective teams who won the competition.
