Description & Flow of Events (including photos of the Event)

NEWS Society of School of Commerce and Management organised its second event on August 19, 2021. The program started with the lightening of the lamp followed by a video presentation giving tribute to the stars who performed during this Olympic. Next, took place the panel discussion on “Sports Management-Lessons from Tokyo Olympics 2020”. The heroes who inspired, the athletes who toiled tirelessly. In difficult conditions, they fought and wished all in their quest for the ultimate glory. Making the world astonished with their Indian pre-eminence, while in scripting their glorious names in the hearts and minds of many. They made their fellow citizens proud and opened the doors to the new-era of Sports in India. The International Olympic Committee says organizers have done all they can to ensure a safe games as the coronavirus pandemic rages on. The delayed 2020 games have been plagued by Covid-19, as well as various scandals and quirks, Reuters reported that 11 athletes have tested positive for the coronavirus since July 2, while Olympic-related infections, including officials and media, stand at 106. In spite of this, Toshiro Muto, chief of the Tokyo Olympics organizing committee, did not rule out cancelling the event if Covid-19 cases spike.
