Gandhi and Shastri Jayanti celebration 2021

A part from the academic activities Arka Jain University is always focused to organising co-curricular and extensional activities for the overall growth and holistic development of the students of the varsity. On the occasion of Gandhi and Shastri Jayanti, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication organized a special programme at Arka Jain University campus on 2nd October 2021 to commemorate the birth anniversary of these two great Indians. The prime purpose of the programme was to promote the values, principles and teachings of the two Indian architects namely Shri. M. K Gandhi and Shri. Lal Bahadur Shastri and their contributions to the nation building amongst students and faculty members as well. Students and faculty members from different department participated in the event in large number to celebrate the Jayanti. Under the able guidance and support of the varsity management especially hon'ble director Mr. Amit Srivastava this special event was convened and led by Dr. Rahul Amin. Faculty members and students of the department of Journalism and Mass Communication actively participated and contributed to make the event a grand success.

The programme was inaugurated by Prof. Dr. S.S. Razi-Vice Chancellor, Mr. Amit Srivastava- Director, Dr. Angad Tiwari-Director Campus and Dean of Students' Welfare, Mr. Jasbir Singh Dhanjal-Registrar, , Dr. Rahul Amin-Head, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Dr Jyotirmay Sahu-Dean, School of Health and Allied Science, Dr. Bodhisattva Acharya-Dean, School of Law, Dr. Arunava Narayan Mukherjee-Dean, School of Commerce and Management, Mr. Himanshu Kumar Sinha-Head, Placement Cell and other Heads of the Departments by lighting the lamp. Everyone paid floral tributes to Gandhiji and Shastriji.

Addressing all, hon'ble vice chancellor Prof. Dr. S.S. Razi delivered his talk highlighting the contributions of both Gandhiji and Shastriji and advised students to study sincerely and establish themselves as good citizens of the country. He says, students should understand the thoughts of Gandhiji and Shastriji, it is important to adopt these ideas in their lives so that the country can move forward. Teachers are known as students, so teachers will also be proud if students do a good job. He also congratulated the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication for organizing this special event.

Hon'ble Prof. Dr. Angad Tiwari-Director Campus and Dean of Students' Welfare briefed

the students about the views of Gandhiji and Shastriji and their sacrifice for the country. He also said that it is very important for all to have love for the country and should work together to build a great nation.

Hon'ble Registrar Mr. Jasbir Singh Dhanjal said that determination and hard work made Gandhiji a role model. Students should also achieve their goal with determination and hard work. At the same time, the thoughts of Gandhiji and Shastriji should be adopted in their lives.

Programme coordinator Dr. Rahul Amin said that in this era of globalization and new media technology one can easily promote the values and principles of our two great Indians not only among Indians but in a global context and for that we must promote love and peace not hatred. Nothing can be resolved or achieved by hatred and negative approach. If citizens adopt the ideas of Gandhiji and Shastriji in their lives in real sense, nothing can stop them from achieving their goals. He also said that we always fail to realise that hatred leads to destruction and consequences are always negative. Therefore, we must end hatred and promote love and peace to uphold the composite culture of the country to make a strong nation.

Mr. Himanshu Kumar Sinha-Placement Head, Dr. Bodhisattva Acharya-Dean, School of Law and Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak-Assistant Professor, Department of English also briefed the students about the Teachings of Gandhiji and Shastriji.

Faculty from department of journalism and mass communication Mr. Amit Kumar Singh, Mr. Shyam Kumar and Md. Usman Raza and teaching and non-teaching staff from other departments were also present during the event.

In the event, students showcased their creativity and talent during the event. Apart from the students of the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, students from other departments also participated. Drama, short film, storytelling, singing, poetry, etc. were the highlights of the programme. The programme was concluded with a vote of thanks.
