Social Visit to Cheshire Home

While the youth of present generation are increasing their participation in the digital world day by day, on the other hand, they are also willing to learn the positive aspects from the people of all the sections of society. The example of one such effort was presented by the students of School of Commerce and Management, ARKA Jain University on 11th January, 2020. The MBA and M. Com students visited Cheshire Home, Sundernagar to celebrate the New Year with its inmates and made an effort to spread happiness and joy amongst them. While observing and listening to the inmates, the students also took lessons to always keep smiling in spite of the odd circumstances in life.

Sister Fellow of Cheshire Home shared the history of Cheshire Home and informed the students about the physical and mental conditions of the inmates residing there. While addressing to the students, Sister appreciated the willingness of the inmates to learn something new even in the odd situations of their life as few of them are being trained to make candles, greeting cards, artificial jewelries, etc.,

The visit was initiated and organised by Dr. Sonia Riyat, Assistant Professor, Department of Commerce & Management. Amongst the MBA students, Subrata, Akash, Harpreet, Priyanka and Simran made a special effort in organising this visit. Dr. Razi, Vice Chancellor, ARKA Jain University, blessed the students for this effort and advised them to continue such an endeavour in future. The Dean (Commerce & Management), Dr. Angad Tiwary and Program Coordinator (MBA & M. Com), Dr. Charu Wadhwa congratulated the students for the efforts made by the students.
