A one-day Workshop on Case Teaching and Writing was organised on 25th January, 2020 by the School of Commerce and Management, ARKA Jain University for all the faculty members of the school. The workshop started with an inaugural function. The vice-chancellor of the university Dr S. S. Razi, the director Mr. Amit Kumar Shrivastav, the registrar Mr Jasbir Singh Dhanjal inaugurated the workshop by lighting the lamp. The deans and Program Coordinators of the respective schools - Mr Ashwini Kumar, Mr. Arvind Pandey and Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo graced the occasion by their presence.

Honorable Vice Chancellor of the university, Prof. (Dr.) S. S. Razi presented the welcome note and advised the participants to make the teaching pedagogy more interactive. With a special note, the director Mr. Amit Kumar Shrivastav suggested the participants to use case teaching methods in the classroom.

The workshop was divided into three sessions – Introduction to Case Method of Teaching, Managing the Classroom Process and Case Writing. Mrs. Poonam Dabaria, Ms Vishakha Joseph and Dr. Sonia Riyat were the resource persons for the respective sessions. They shared valuable information and kept the participants involved throughout the session. All the participants took active part in all the three sessions. The workshop ended with distribution of Certificates of Participation among all the participants.
