Agenda 1: Objective of meeting

Decision: Discussed and updated

Dr. Sahoo explained the objective of meeting. He said Mentoring is a very important role for the success of a student. All the five fingers are not equal. Students which develop strong mentoring relationships tend to be more productive and participative in various activities. A student is not only to do excel in academics. Mentoring helps to search the potentiality within the students, their strong points and simultaneously how to complete their course work and industrial training successfully.

Agenda 2: Philosophy of Mentoring

Decision: Discussed and updated

The purpose of mentoring is overall development of the student. Understanding and trust is the main focus on which mentor and mentee can remain successful on setting goals, making decision, solving problem and achieving goals. This is because both mentor and mentee gain experience as it's about not teaching but learning.

- During first meeting with mentee, the mentor should explain about the relationship between mentor-mentee. How it will be beneficial in both way of participation in co-curricular, social, cultural & sports activities, community service projects, tutoring, etc apart from regular teaching & learning.
- Mentor should explore the hidden interest of mentee in which he/she can do well.
- The mentors interest should also realised or feel by the Mentee.
- Mentor should also address their background and attempt to identify their strengths and weaknesses. This information will help to set the goal for the mentee for his/her academic activity and career.
- After analysis of the information/feedback given by mentee, the mentor shall guide the mentee.
- Mentor should also understand that while designing any project/educational activity for them, the goals might differ from their opinion. Such type of student's aspects should be addressed| positively.
- In case a mentee is disappointed due to negative results in examinations or projects, it's the mentor's responsibility to motivate and offer proper guidance in light of their weakness. So that their future goals can be achieved.
- At least two meetings with the mentee for update of activity should be taken by the mentor in every semester.
- A free access over email and instant messenger to the mentee should be there by the Mentor.
- Whatever system which are going to be implemented within the institution must to be discussed with the Mentee by the Mentor.
