“OUTREACH FOR “KANGRI, A CHARITY TO DISTRIBUTE WARM CLOTHES”

Bhesajam The Pharma Club of School of Pharmacy, Department of English & Department of Biotechnology, ARKA JAIN University ORGANIZED “KANGRI An outreach for Homeless People to distribute Warm Clothes in the Winter” on 22nd December 2021 at Tatanagar Railway Station to the homeless people. Kangri means a small pot filled with lighted charcoal, used to transport fire or (in Kashmir) carried close to the body as a means of keeping warm. As stated with the norms of Pharmacy Council of India, the approved institutes should go for outreach programs for the benefit of society as well as to educate and aware the pharmacy students to realise their role for the wellness of society. This time it was planned to present with the homeless people to share their pain. The request letter was approved from Honourable Vice Chancellor and Registrar of AJU as well as Dean Student Welfare to conduct the program on 22nd December 2021 at Tatanagar Railway Station in the evening hour. Five of our faculty members along with a few Pharmacy students and students of Biotechnology as well as Department of English, Dr. Santosh Sigh PC of Department of Biotechnology along with three lab assistants coordinated to conduct the program. Dr. Manoj Pathak, Asst. Professor, Department of English coordinated to bring the event successful. Dean School of Pharmacy Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo said “One can stay six-seven days without food but it is more painful to stay bare under the sky in winter night”. He expressed his gratitude to those homeless people who accepted the small effort by the students and have given opportunity to serve them. The event was engaging, relevant and informative. Mr. Sumanta Sen, Dr. Babita Sarangi. Miss Sbhashree Sahoo, Miss Khshboo Raj, Miss Yogita Kmari, Mr. Alok Moharana, Ms Shweta, Miss Priyabati, Miss Ankita, Miss Pratikshya, Miss Tejaswini Mohanty, Mr. Pradeepta Mandal, Miss Pratikshya, Mr. Asutosha, Mr. Rashmiranjan, Mr. Barun of School of Pharmacy, AJU guided the students to maintain discipline. Bhesajam is doing well for the all-round development of the students as well as the society.
