“Banking Blink”: Banking Riddles Session

On 31st January, 2022, a Banking Riddle Session “Banking Blink” was organized for BBA Semester VI students through online mode. The session consisted of some fact based questions which made the participants to divert their thought process in a different direction. The students were provided with the opportunity to use their logic to answer the riddles. The objective of conducting the said event was two-fold: to improve the analytical thinking capabilities of the students and to help them get some practical insights through the various situation based questions. Students took keen interest to understand, analyse and actively answer the riddles. Students shared their viewpoints at the end of the session about their overall experience.

The event was conducted by Prof. Chanchal Mandal, Member of Faculty from the School of Commerce and Management.

Outcome (Feedback and Reactions to the Event including Press Coverage, in any specifying name of the newspaper, date and day of the coverage):

1. Students were provided with the opportunity to sharpen their analytical thinking abilities.
2. Students got the understanding on the practical aspects of the concepts of banking.
