Webinar on Important Communication about LinkedIn Learning

The Department of English, from the School of Humanities organised a webinar on Important Communication about LinkedIn Learning through Google Meet (online). The department have always been progressive towards new learning and encourages their students to enhance their knowledge not just into text but beyond it too. There are many avenues of learning and e-learning that has its significant impact on every field of work life.

LinkedIn Learning is an American massive open online course provider. It provides video courses taught by industry experts in software, creative, and business skills. It is a subsidiary of LinkedIn. All the courses on LinkedIn fall into 3 categories: Business, Creative, and Technology. Whether you're a serious or casual learner, LinkedIn Learning is absolutely worth the time and money you might invest in the platform. Whether you want to develop skills that you might need for a job search or just want to learn something fun, new, and exciting in your spare time, LinkedIn Learning is the way to go.

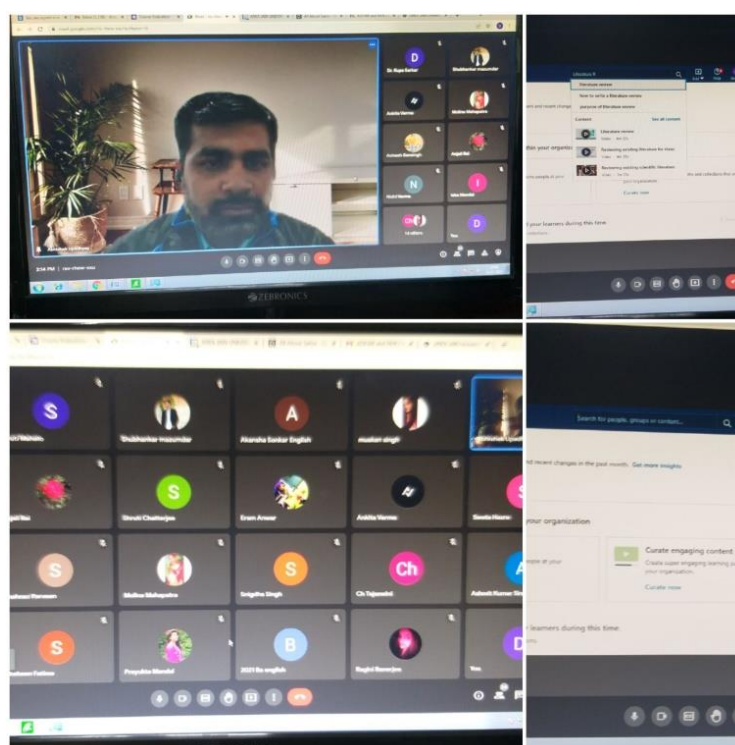

Mr. Abhishek Upadhaya, Prof-in-Charge of the Department Of Bachelor In Business Administration, School Of Commerce And Management was kind enough to enlighten the under graduates of the Department Of English. He introduced the LinkedIn Learning and also gave the students a demonstration on how they could create their profile and connect to the various learning courses.

The Department of English, from the School of Humanities, is highly obliged to the Arka Jain University, for its positive support in every event. This session paved the path of communication learning to the students of B A English and has given them a new avenues to explore for their bright future.
