Social visit to Cheshire Home

On 14th February, 2022 the students of Department of BBA , ARKA JAIN UNIVERSITY went for a Social Visit to an Orphanage in Sundernagar “Cheshire Home”. We reached the destination by 10 am morning and there was the greenery all around. The surrounding of the Home was very neat and clean. The Children greeted the students with smiles and warmth. The students donated some fruits, biscuits and other eatables which they had collected prior to the visit. The students sang and danced along with the children there and also had a small cake cutting ceremony. They were accompanied by the faculty members of BBA Prof Sunita Jha and Prof Sudeshna Sarkar.

Outcome: The students developed an attitude of generosity towards the underprivileged and resolved to continue to contribute for such causes in future.
