Induction Programme

AARAMBH'2021 – The orientation program for the fourth batch of Ph.D Scholars (2021 Batch) of ARKA Jain University was organized virtually on February 08, 2022 at Google Meet platform. The event began with a formal welcome note presented by Dr. Sonia Riyat, Program Coordinator-Ph.D Course, in which she said that the School of Research of the University is committed to the intellectual development of the scholars. The event followed with virtual lamp-lighting.

Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Prof. (Dr.) S.S. Razi, in the inaugural address, said that research is the fountain of knowledge, for knowledge where honesty and dedication of the researcher is must. The Director, Mr. Amit Srivastava said that the University is committed to extend all possible support to the research scholars. He described the role of scholars as important for their creative development.

The Chief Guest, Prof. (Dr.) Amar Singh, Principal, Jamshedpur Co-operative College, Jamshedpur highlighted the importance of research for the society. He said that the research provides right direction to human knowledge. It not only develops and refines the knowledge store; it is also helpful in diagnosing and redressing the biases. He appealed to the research scholars to do research work with dedication. He also discussed the Ph.D guidelines issued by UGC in detail. Congratulating the new researchers, he wished them for the new beginning towards research.

Dean, Students Welfare, Prof. (Dr.) Angad Tiwary said that researchers should have the right vision so that a subtle study can be done. The road-map of the Ph.D Course of the university was shared by Dr. Charu Wadhwa, Program Coordinator, Department of MBA. Mrs. Rajkumari Ghosh, Program Coordinator, Department of English introduced all the Ph.D Supervisors of different departments. Mr. Rajeev Kumar Sinha, Ms. Puja Srivastav, Mr. Manoj Kumar Ojha, and Ms. Shalini, the existing research scholars from first three batches of Ph.D, shared their experiences with the newly-registered scholars and motivated them to utilise their time effectively for the quality research work.

The Registrar of the university, Controller of Examination, all the Ph.D Supervisors, Deans and HODs of different departments, were present during the event. The program ended with formal vote of thanks proposed by the Program Coordinator-Ph.D Course.
