Date of Event	2 ND March,2022
Name and Type of Event	Field Trip to “ Dalmanchal ”
Conducted by	Asst. Prof. Sudeshna Sarkar & Asst. Prof. Sunita Jha
No. Of Participant/s	36

On 3rd March, 2022 Department of BBA- Sem VI, Arka Jain University organised a field trip to “Dalmanchal” at NH-33 under the guidance of Prof Sudeshna Sarkar and Prof Sunita Jha.

It was a part of their Environmental Studies Project. Buses were arranged from the campus for the pickup and drop facility.

In total, 36 students were selected for the visit on First Come First Serve Basis from Sem VI. Upon reaching the location, the students were greeted by Mr Sanjeev Agarwal the owner of the resort and the manager Kriti Agarwal. She gave us a deep insight regarding various crops like corn and wheat which were produced with the help of crop rotation as technique. We also learned about various medicinal plants, pulses and herbs which were grown with the technique of compost pit.

A variety of species like Sindoor , Kapur and chiku also caught thye attention of the students. The students also visited the outlet which included a variety of pickles and handcrafts. The students were curious and at the same time thrilled to be this close to the nature. They interacted with the rural people & asked various questions which were all patiently answered.

They were accompanied by The Environmental Studies Teacher of the BBA Department. The Event was organised and coordinated by Prof. Sudeshna Sarkar & Prof. Sunita Jha The co-ordinators for this visit were, Prof Chanchal Mandal and Asst. Prof Suraj guru Mehta.

Outcome:

With this visit, the students could relate the foundational concepts in environmental study with the practical ones. The Field Trip awakened the feeling of love for nature and made everyone realise the value of conserving our environment, keeping it clean and safe for our future generations.
