International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating gender parity. Significant activity is witnessed worldwide as groups come together to celebrate women's achievements or rally for women's equality.

On 14th March, 2022 the students of School of Commerce and Mangement organised a programme to celebrate International women’s day. There was a welcome note by one of the students from the department of BBA Sem VI Aditi Singh. The students started a talk show in which they called upon the women to talk about their achievements in their personal life. Few women spoke the challenges they face in the village, one of it was early marriage. Secondly a game was organised where in the women were asked to light maximum number of candles with one match stick. Thre women were declared first, second and third prize winners. Then a game on musical chairs was played and again there winners were declared. The event was graced by Prof. Paras Nath Mishra coordinator of NSS at Arka Jain University.

The event concluded with a vote of Thanks by a student of BBA Sem VI Aparajita. Overall the event ended in a success.

Outcome: The event encouraged the students to participate in social development activities for holistic development.
