

Report on Personal and Family Budgets Held on 25.02.2022

Date of Event	25.02.2022
Name and Type of Event	Discussion Session on “Personal and Family Budgets”
Conducted by	Prof. Chanchal Mandal
No. Of Participant	5

On 25th February, 2022, a Discussion Session “Personal and Family Budgets” was organized for BBA Semester VI students as a monthly classroom activity. The session began with briefing from the faculty to provide the students a background on the importance of budgeting. During the discussion, few important points were touched upon in the field of personal and family budgeting. Students were given the opportunity to freely express their viewpoints, examples and anecdotes on the topic at length. The objective of conducting the said event was two-fold: to improve the practical thinking capabilities of the students and to prepare them to face the real world with confidence by understanding the importance of budgeting. The session was concluded by the Faculty Mentor after discussing some important tips on effective budgeting both at personal and family front.

The event was conducted by Prof. Chanchal Mandal, Member of Faculty from the School of Commerce and Management.

Outcome (Feedback and Reactions to the Event including Press Coverage, in any specifying name of the newspaper, date and day of the coverage):

1. Students got the opportunity to develop their practical thinking capabilities.
2. Students were provided with the readiness to face the real world with confidence.

Poster of the Event

Photos of the Event

