Objective:-

The session aimed at providing knowledge about the key factors of good personality in a legal career. The steps involved in the process of developing oneself into a good lawyer was thoroughly explained to the students. The objective of the workshop was to inform the students about the various skills to develop their personality. By this workshop students were also introduced with the Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). It was also explained that one must have a good communication skill, observation skill and good advocacy skill.

The seminar helped the students to understand the following-

- to engage with and think deeply about interesting and topical legal issues;
- to enhance their advocacy, legal research and writing skills;
- to work closely with and learn from their peers; and
- to demonstrate their interest in advocacy and competence as an advocate to prospective employers.

Students were also explained about the lawyer undergo legal training and acquire legal knowledge by studying hard for long numbers of years and when a client engage us, we simply offer our expert services, on mutually agreed remuneration.

It was also said to the students lawyers have build up such a great image in the society by fighting for the citizens that each member of the society understands the worth of an advocate.

To be a good lawyer one must have fluent verbal communication skill and writing skill. By writing various articles, participating in conferences, moot court, debate and legal research can enhance their ability to be good lawyer.
