Placement Talks by Training and Placement Department

On March 12th, a Placement Talk programme Programme was organized for the students of MBA (Semester 4) by the Training and Placement Department under the aegis of School of Commerce and Management, Arka Jain University. The students had good session on knowing about the placement updates by the placement team. During the session, the students were guided on the various skills where they need to train themselves to enhance employability skills.

The session lasted for around 1 hour .The presentation was followed by practical examples which led to further clarity of the topic. The objective of the programme was to enable students to have a personal session with the placement team so that they can be guided on the future course of action

The event was conducted by Faculty Co-ordinator (Placement) of SCoM, Prof. Sonal Shrivastava of Department of MBA , School of Commerce and Management in association with the Placement Team of ARKA JAIN University.
