Department of Journalism and Mass Communication organised an online photography contest from 22nd to 26th November 2017. The purpose of this online contest was to give students a platform to showcase their talent of photography. This online photography contest aimed at engaging the students to enhance their creative skills.

This Photography contest was organised for the students to utilise their photography skills practically. The photography contest also helped the students to enhance their creativity while clicking the photographs.

From this contest students also came to know that photography is one of the important tasks in the field of journalism and other various media related profession. So looking at the importance of photography students were motivated to participate in this contest.

Students participated in this photography contest with great enthusiasm. Students participated in this contest to utilise and to brush up their photography skill.

All the participants showcased their talents enthusiastically. Meghna Dutta was declared as the winner. And Shreya Modi was declared as the runner up in this photography contest.

The winner of this contest Shreya Modi said “I am really happy to be the winner of this photography contest. We are happy that such productive activity is being organised by the department of journalism and mass communication. It was a great opportunity for me to show my talent. I really enjoyed this contest. I also learnt how to utilise one’s skill of photography practically. This contest built confidence in me to do photography professionally”.

The runner up of this contest Meghna Dutta said ‘I am glad to be a runner up of this photography contest. Such contest should always be organised so that we will be able to an opportunity to showcase our talents in the field of photography. Though I am not the winner but as a runner up I learnt that I have to improve myself and practice more to excel in photography. It was really a learning experience for me’.

Through this photography contest students practically learnt many things such as composition, lighting, handling camera, proper framing, proper lighting etc. The photography contest organised by the department of journalism and mass communication was very much productive for all the students.
