A visit to the Art Gallery – Off the Wall, Sakchi was planned for the Batch 2017. It was a part of the Art Appreciation session and to sensitize the students towards the local artists.

The Art Gallery curates the work of artists with distinctive styles and of different generations. The Artists get a chance to showcase their talent. Their work of different mediums and themes reflects the vibrant diversity of contemporary India, taking inspiration from abstract minimalism to rich mythology and global-desi pop culture. Off the Wall Gallery offers art lovers an opportunity to view and purchase contemporary Indian art from across India. The gallery's wide selection of Indian paintings, prints, sculptures and folk art provide a glimpse into the inspirations of leading and upcoming Indian artists.

Off the Wall Gallery deals in Indian contemporary art and modern art. It has a wide range of Indian Paintings by Indian artists. It carries original paintings in different mediums such as oil paintings, watercolor paintings, acrylic paintings and charcoal paintings. It has paintings in different styles like abstract paintings, landscape paintings and figurative paintings. It has grown with a view to promote contemporary art in India.

The art gallery has been continuously involved in recognition and promotion of emerging Indian artists and Indian art creating an awareness of art amongst old and new collectors and provides a platform for interaction between artist and Indian art collectors.

Off the Wall Gallery offers art lovers an opportunity to view and purchase contemporary Indian art from across India. The gallery's wide selection of Indian paintings, prints, sculptures and folk art provide a glimpse into the inspirations of leading and upcoming Indian artists.

The students were spent 1-2 hours studying the styles of the different paintings, taking notes, pictures, appreciating and analyzing the different artists. Along with the paintings were also ceramic work and some installations by the artists. It was a great learning experience and exposure for the students who would be able to apply these aesthetics to their work.
