Date of Event	20.10.2022
Name of the Event	PYAR BANTE CHALO EPISODE II A Field Visit to the Elderly-Care-Home at Nirmalhriday, Baridih, Jamshedpur
Type of the Event	Non-academic/Academic (Life Skill)
Conducted by	School of Pharmacy
No. Of Participant	69

OBJECTIVE: To provide the students a real-world experience and to make them realize that what they learn within the classroom / laboratory can help them solve the problems they see in the world around them, so that the horizons of knowledge of the students can be broadened.

DETAILS: The students of different courses of Pharmacy of School of pharmacy visited the Elderly-Care-Home at Nirmalhriday, Baridih, Jamshedpur on 20th October 2022. Students with the faculty members Mr.SumantaSen, Miss AnkitaMoharana, Miss RashmiTurkey left for the Elderly-Care-Home at Nirmalhriday at 11:00 AM with University transport facility. They had learned about the life skill and how to handle the geriatric patients. Students also presented fruits and dry food for the residents of NirmalHriday. Students observe that the bare minimum facilities are provided to the residential of elderly care home. Seniors expect it to be like an institution where they can spend their sunset years, free from household chores and tasks. But, beyond that, old-age homes are lack of major facilities. Always there is a question in mind of everybody that whether it is right to put parents in old age or elderly care home. Obviously the answer is no, it is not good to send the parents to old age homes. But other side of the coin is those who have no one to take care in their sunset of life, old age homes are very helpful. Students got emotion with the residential of the NirmalHriday. They promise to come them in a regular interval. With the words of this assurance the students could able to see the happiness in the eyes of the elderly people. During the return to the campus all the students were speechless and in a very different state. Students instructed to submit a report about the experience of visit. After an hour of visit students came back to campus.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): Students were able to learn the life skill how to handle the elderly persons and what are the moral responsibilities towards them.
