OBJECTIVE: To Establish literary, cultural, moral and sacramental importance of Sanskrit in the present social context and values. Sanskrit does not only teach the language but also include a vast treasure trove of wisdom. One can specialize in subjects like yoga, poetics, Indian drama, Vedic studies, astrology and Ayurveda. .

DETAILS:Sanskrit - the mother of all languages, one of the 23 official languages of India and known as a classical language of Indian subcontinent belongs to the Indic group of language family of Indo-European and its descendents (Indo-Iranian & Indo Aryan). Sanskrit is one of the oldest known languages over thousands of years. It is also called "Dev Vani" (the language of gods) as it is said that Brahma introduced this language to the Sages of celestial bodies. It is believed that the Sanskrit language came from Indo-European language family of Indian subcontinent. It was only in the 18th century, a similarity between Sanskrit, Latin and Greek was found which made the think tanks of the world to study and discover the relationship of all Indo-European languages. Enough evidence is yet to be gathered to accept Indian origin of Sanskrit language. Vedic Sanskrit was the earliest form of Sanskrit language approximately around 1500-200 B.C.), when "knowledge" was handed down through the generations orally. The oldest known text in Sanskrit, the Rigveda, a collection of over a thousand Hindu hymns, the Sama-veda is the veda of chants, the Yajur-veda the veda of prayers; finally, the Atharva-veda contains the lore of the Atharvans. Panini composed his grammar of Sanskrit. Panini's Sanskrit grammer called Ashtadhyayi produced around 4th century B.C gives the details of how the language works and forms the basis for modern Sanskrit grammars. The three major Hindu philosophic concepts which were formulated in Sanskrit are Dvaita (Madhvacharya), Advaita (Sankaracharya) and Vishistadvaita (Ramanujacharya).Bhagvad Gita teaches a person should dream big and should not be deterred by obstacles in the path to achieve those dreams. It also teaches how to meet our own difficulties and decisions with fearlessness and honesty and learn to live life authentically and fully.

With these positive Intentions School of Pharmacy organised Deva Vani Sanskritam a Recitation Competition on Shrimad Bhagwat Geeta on 12th December 2022. Students participated and chanted two stanzas of different episodes of Shrimad Bhagwat Geeta. Dr. Bodhishatwa Acharya, dean of SOL, Dr. Manoj Pathak Associate Professor of Department of English and Mr. Mukul Pandey Assistant Professor of SCOM were the judges to evaluate the performance of the students. Miss Sweet Pathak stood 1st, Mr. Prashant Kumar stood 2nd and Miss Aradhya Singh Rathore stood 3rd in the competition. Winners awarded with certificates and 1st winner was provided a prize of Rs 500/-. The judges were felicitated with Shrimad Bhagwat Gita. The program was ended with Shanti stuti.

OUTCOMES: Sanskrit teaches the five human values. According to Kautilya (Chanakya) Artha is the most important, Dharma and Karma are both dependent on it, which is followed by several human values like Truth, Nonviolence, Brahmacharya and Secularism in the life.
