Held on: 29.11.2022

Date of Event	29.11.2022
Name and Type of Event	Group Discussion on ‘British Poetry & Drama’
Conducted by	Ms. Rajkumari Ghosh, Dept. of English, AJU
No. of Participants	19
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. To create awareness among the students of the salient features of British Poetry & Drama, especially 14th to 17th Century. ii. To examine the trend of the age. iii. To develop interest in participative activities for oral communication.
Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Better understanding of British Poetry & Drama (ii) Participative discussion to gain multidimensional understanding of Indian classical drama and epic as genre.

A Group Discussion was arranged on ‘British Poetry & Drama’ for the SEM I students of Batch 2022 B. A.-English (H) as a class activity for better understanding of the topic and enhancing the oral communication and participative skills.

About the Event: The students of B. A.-English (H), SEM I (Batch-2022) took part in a group discussion on ‘British Poetry & Drama’ moderated by Ms. Rajkumari Ghosh, Department of English to make the students known to the salient features of British Poetry & Drama through participative activities. Ms. Rajkumari Ghosh in the introductory note said that it was with the fourteenth century that major works of English literature began once again to appear and the 17th century marked a shift from an age of faith to an age of reason. Literature represents the turbulence in society, religion, and the monarchy of this period. Life for the English people changed as religious controversy and civil war shook the nation.

The students actively participated in the group discussion and put forward their views and opinions about their understanding on British Poetry & Drama of 14th to 17th Century.
