Report on: Group Discussion on 'Indian Classical Drama and Epic'

Held on: 21.11.2022

Date of Event	21.11.2022
Name and Type of Event	Group Discussion on 'Indian Classical Drama and Epic'
Conducted by	Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak, Dept. of English, AJU
No. of Participants
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. To create awareness among the students of the rich and diverse literary cultures of ancient India. ii. To examine similarities and differences between the concepts of wisdom in modern western versus ancient Indian texts iii. To develop interest in participative activities for oral communication.
Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Better understanding of Indian Classical Texts (ii) Participative discussion to gain multidimensional understanding of Indian classical drama and epic as genre. (iii) Attainment of GD skills and improving oral communication skills.

A Group Discussion was arranged on 'Indian Classical Drama and Epic' for the SEM I students of Batch 2022 B. A.-English (H) as a class activity for better understanding of the topic and enhancing the oral communication and participative skills.

About the Event: The students of B. A.-English (H), SEM I (Batch-2022) took part in a group discussion on 'Indian Classical Drama and Epic' moderated by Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak, Department of English to create awareness among the students of the rich literary legacy of ancient India. Dr. Pathak in the introductory note said that the origin of Indian classical drama can be traced in the Vedas. Even the epics, like the Mahabharata support the existence of performers or nata as early as 400 CE. The Nattyashastra by Bharatamuni, which emerged in 3rd CE, is the most extant treatise on Indian drama.

The students actively participated in the group discussion and put forward their views and opinions about Indian classical texts. They discussed regarding the characteristics of classical drama and epic and enriched themselves.

The discussion referred to the tradition of dramatic literature and performance along with the epics in ancient India.
