OBJECTIVE: To understand the complete freedom for India with a classless society and state socialism and the idea of the potential divinity of every being and how to manifest it through every action and thought.

DETAILS: Swami Vivekananda was one of the most popular Hindu monks and spiritual leaders of India. His name was NarendranathDatta. He was born on 12 January 1863 into a Bengali Kayastha family of Calcutta. His father's name was VishwanathDatta. He is best known in the United States for his ground-breaking speech to the 1893 World's Parliament of Religions in which he introduced Hinduism to America and called for religious tolerance and an end to fanaticism. Ethics according to Vivekananda was nothing but a code of conduct that helps a man to be a good citizen. We should be pure because purity is our real nature, our true divine Self. We should love and serve our neighbours because we are all one in the Supreme Spirit.

The life lessons by Swami Vivekananda is

1. You cannot believe in God until you believe in yourself.
2. Arise, Awake and stop not until the goal is reached.
3. You have to grow from the inside out. None can teach you, none can make you spiritual. There is no other teacher but your own soul.
4. In a conflict between the heart and the brain, follow your heart.
5. They alone live, who live for others.
6. Neither seek nor avoid, take what comes.
7. Comfort is no test of truth. Truth is often far from being comfortable.
8. The fire that warms us can also consume us; it is not the fault of the fire.
9. Ask nothing; want nothing in return. Give what you have to give; it will come back to you, but do not think of that now.
10. Do one thing at a Time, and while doing it put your whole Soul into it to the exclusion of all else.

Subhas Bose was born in this house on 23.1.1897 at Janakinath Bhawan, Cuttack, Odisha. Rabindranath Tagore, the Noble laureate gave the title of 'DeshNayak' to Subhash Chandra Bose in recognition of his service to the nation and its people. Subhash Chandra Bose was an Indian revolutionary who believed in violent resistance to British rule. He joined the Indian National Army in 1943. One of his most famous declarations was 'Tum mujhe khoon do mai tumhe azadi doonga' (Give me blood, I shall give you freedom). His father Janaki Nath Bose was a famous lawyer and his mother's name was Prabhavati Devi. Subhas Chandra Bose topped the matriculation examination of Calcutta province and graduated with a First Class in Philosophy from the Scottish Churches College in Calcutta. He was very patriotic and deeply influenced by Swami Vivekananda's teachings as a student. He went to England in 1919 to compete for Indian Civil Services. In England, he appeared for the Indian Civil Service competitive examination in 1920 and came out fourth in order of merit. In 1941 Bose escaped house arrest in disguise and travelled out of India. He started garnering support from Nazi Germany and even met Adolf Hitler. The ideology of Subhas Chandra Bose He was influenced by Bhagavad Gita and believed Gita to be a source of inspiration for the struggle against the British. Swami Vivekananda's teachings of universalism, nationalistic thoughts also greatly influenced Bose since his young days. He was attracted to concepts of socialism and communism during his days in the Congress party. But he believed it will work in India if a synthesis between National Socialism and communism is established. Other reputed slogans by Subhas Chandra Bose were DilliChalo and Jai Hind. Moral lessons to be learned from Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose: Sacrifice: He abandoned a life of ample wealth and stupendous comfort and dedicated his life to his nation and resorted to whatever means necessary to secure its freedom from British colonial rule.
