OBJECTIVE:

The Objective of the event was to sensitize the students to the local art and culture, provide a practical and rich learning experience and enable to get a hands-on experience of weaving on a handloom which is a very primitive way of creating fabric but still used in many industries. It was opportunity to understand the ecosystem that exists in the rural tribal village where the tribal women are taught this livelihood skill and they develop grass mat products using the indigenous sustainable raw materials and thereby earn a living. The students were also able to understand Sustainable Design in its true sense.

ABOUT THE EVENT:

An Industrial visit was organized for the students of Fashion Design Department and other Design enthusiasts to Grass mat weaving centre, Janumdih. This cluster is managed by Kalamandir Saksham Shg Federation, Jamshedpur. A few students of DBMS Career Academy and faculty members also accompanied in this trip.

Grass mat weaving is a source of livelihood for many tribals residing in the Janumdih Area. They have been trained to create weaves using locally sourced Grass fibre and cotton fibre to create Grass mat on the Weaving looms. These woven Grass mats then are used to create various lifestyle products and accessories like – curtains, floor mat, decorative items, File binders, yoga mat and more. These beautiful pieces of art are biodegradable and environmentally friendly and thereby a great example of Sustainable Design Practice.

The students were able to try their hands on the weaving looms. The visit was a great learning experience for the Design students and the other Design enthusiasts.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOME):

The session was very fruitful for the students as they practically learnt the process and worked on the looms. They also were able to interact with the local tribal women and understand their work.
