Rukhsat 2023: Farewell to outgoing batch

Date of Event	13.05.2023
Name of the Event	Rukhsat- Farewell to outgoing batch
Type of the Event	Non academic
Conducted by	Department of Optometry
No. of Participants	37

OBJECTIVE:

Rukhsat is the tradition of ARKA JAIN University wherein the outgoing batches are bid goodbye after their final semester exams. The batch of 2019-2023 had their Dissertation, viva and placement drive in between 8th May to 12th May, 2023. In between their schedule, the event was organized by the current 3rd years i.e., batch of 2020-2024. The farewell helps in extending the last interaction between the juniors and seniors, telling the juniors about the experiences and counter measures.

ABOUT THE EVENT:

The dress code of this year's Rukhsat was red or black. The event was commenced with oath undertaking by the outgoing batch. The vice chancellor delivered his speech; there were dances, songs, documentary of the batch's memories and games. The title "Face of Optometry" was awarded to Ms Chanchal Kumari, class representative of the batch for her tremendous efforts inside as well as outside the classroom. The title Mr and Ms Farewell was awarded to Mr Abhishek Mahakud and Ms Aparna Kumari, for their elusive confidence in ramp walk and their answers to the questions asked by the jury. The event was wrapped up with delicious treats and cake cutting ceremony.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOME):

Farewell to the students are important to let them know they are special to the University. The message that they are the alumni and now, the flag bearers of the University to the outside world where they will pursue their higher education or profession.
