SESSION ON HUMAN VALUES

A bundle of great values was shared by Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak (Assistant Professor) on 22nd September. In his session on Human Values, he taught about that patience, integrity, truthfulness, etc and shared an excellent example of a poem written by Swami Vivekananda “Cup”, he added life is just like a cup that spans between birth and death, and we need to pour into the cup subsequently. Therefore this life has to be filled with values from time to time and also to be observant. He presented a brilliant example of the great lawyer of the 90’s namely Chitta Ranjan Das, who changed the verdict when Bhagat Singh was told an extremist, but the way C.R. Das saved Bhagat Singh was miraculously. At the day of hanging of Bhagat Singh, C.R. Dad said the most unexpected words, he said Bhagat Singh should be hanged but should be hanged but should not die, because the documents says to hang him. After this the sentence was changed and hang till death was added. Sir said, “Be the best at your work and you will be demanded”.
