Objective: The Induction Programs core purpose is to familiarize students with institution rules and academic standards, build relationships with peers and faculty, foster a love for learning, empower them to handle peer pressure, promote empathy and sincerity.

Details: The primary goal of the Induction Program is to facilitate the smooth adjustment and comfort of new students in their new environment, while also introducing them to the institution's culture. The Induction Program offers crucial information such as class schedules, practical sessions, uniforms, institutional policies, and various academic and non-academic activities . This year the induction program of School of Pharmacy AARAMBH 2023 began from 5th august 2023 and lasted till 22nd august 2023. It was jointly organized by the School of Pharmacy and the Institute Industry Interaction Cell (IIIC), in partnership with ARKA JAIN University and IQAC through their MoU, the event featured esteemed professionals from both Industry and Academia. The week-long program not only provided students with powerful insights from dynamic experts but also energized them for the journey ahead. The event commenced with lamp lighting conducted by the honorable Vice Chancellor of Arka Jain University, Dr. S.S. Razi. The ceremony was graced by the presence of esteemed guests including Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, Jasbir Singh Dhanjal, Dr. Angad Tiwari, Deans of various Schools and departments, along with the dedicated teaching and non-teaching staff members. In a symbolic gesture, green pots were offered to the guests, symbolizing growth and new beginnings. In his address, the Vice Chancellor, Dr. S.S. Razi, inspired the incoming students with a motivating speech. He emphasized that great heights can be achieved even in adverse circumstances, as long as one remains steadfast in their goals. Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, the Dean of the School of Pharmacy, provided an insightful introduction to ARKA JAIN University and specifically the School of Pharmacy. This was followed by a captivating dance performance by Shreya. The session continued with a presentation of a video showcasing the essence of the steel city followed by a concise overview of the institute's vision and mission. The event then shifted focus to the pharmaceutical sector, with several esteemed resource persons sharing their insights.

These included Dr. Debajyoti Das, Professor cum Addl. Dean, SPS SOA University Odisha; Mr. Rajib Kumar Sahoo, Research Scientist (Associate Manager) at Syngene International Ltd., Bangalore; Mr. Akhil Kumar Das, Manager, Regulatory Affairs; Mr. J. Jayseelan, Delvin Formulations Pvt. Ltd.; and Mr. Ganapathy Rao, Senior Manager HR at Aurobindo Pharma Ltd., Visakhapatnam. Their talks revolved around the career prospects and future scope for pharmacy graduates in India. The day's proceedings were seamlessly managed under the guidance of Dr. Shweta, who ensured smooth connectivity and coordination with the resources. The second day commenced with Yoga and Meditation session, led by Mr. Ashutosha. Continuing the day's events, Prof. Dr. Amiyakanta Mishra, Professor and Principal at CPS, Puri, Odisha, and Dr. Erwin Faller, Director and Professor at the Faculty of Pharmacy, San Pedro College, Philippines, took the stage. Their engaging talks echoed the previous day's discussions, centering around the promising career prospects and future opportunities for pharmacy graduates in India. Under the guidance of Dr. Shweta, the day's proceedings maintained a seamless flow, ensuring smooth connectivity and coordination with the distinguished resource persons. An important segment followed, acknowledging the accomplishments of students who successfully qualified the GPAT and NIPER examinations. Alongside this, a selected group of teachers received recognition for their selfless dedication, contributing significantly to the reputation of the department and the university as a whole. This segment was conducted under the guidance of Dr. Kirtimaya Mishra. The subsequent session centered around an Alumni Talk, facilitated by Mr. Alok Mohrana. The session served to motivate upcoming batches. The program then moved on to providing insights into various university events held throughout the year, including Aagaz, Aarambh, Navotsav, Roshni, RunBhoomi, Holi Invasion, and Caarvan. Miss Priyabati eloquently detailed each event, offering a glimpse into the vibrant campus life and diverse activities that students could eagerly anticipate. The day commenced with Dr. Priyambada Sarangi, Director of Holy Grace Academy of Pharmacy in Mala, Thrissur, Kerala. She outlined the diverse opportunities available worldwide. The session continued with Dr. Charu Wadha, who spoke about Gender Sensitization and ICC (Internal Complaint Committee). She enlightened the students that gender sensitization in colleges is not just a matter of compliance with legal frameworks but a significant step toward societal progress. The next session was conducted by Miss Priyabati, who spoke about the Code and Conduct of the University. Student's Conduct & Discipline Rules have been framed for the benefit of the students and the proper functioning of the University. The session continued with detailed information on the CODE OF CONDUCT, detailing the Discipline one needs to maintain within the campus, uniform, timing, and other necessary details. Mr. Alok Moharana provided detailed information to the upcoming B.PHARMA 2023 students regarding their syllabus and regulations. The session was followed by a talent hunt organized by Mr. Sumanta Sen. Fresher's participated and showcased their talents, including dance, singing, and recitation. Later, Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo conducted a session on Human values, emphasizing their importance in fostering character development, ethical decision-making, and positive relationships. These values, such as honesty, respect, empathy, and responsibility, also enhance social skills, emotional intelligence, and conflict resolution abilities. Miss Rashmi Tirkey provided a detailed overview of the syllabus and regulations for the Dpharm students.

The session then transitioned into the "CARE THE NATURE" event, where freshers actively participated. This event involved a visit to the university's adopted village, Musrikudar, where students planted seeds in the ground with the assistance of local villagers. Miss Purnima Mahato supervised the event. The students thoroughly enjoyed the session. Dr. Praveen Kumar Thakur, the Controller of Examinations (COE), provided comprehensive details about the university's examination procedures. Following this informative session, a "CHARCHA" session took place, facilitating interactive discussions between seniors and juniors. Dr. Nalini Kanta Sahoo, Director cum Principal of MIT College of Pharmacy in Moradabad, enlightening the students about the scope of higher education after completing bachelor's and diploma degrees in pharmacy. He also discussed various career opportunities available in different sectors of the pharmaceutical industry. Following this insightful session, the students were instructed to attend the AARAMBH 2023 celebration at LOYOLA School along with their parents. The National Service Scheme plays a pivotal role in college students' lives, offering them a unique opportunity to blend academic learning with real-world experiences. By participating in NSS, students lay the foundation for a brighter future for themselves and their communities. The session was conducted by Mr. Paras Nath Mishra, NSS coordinator, who spoke about the significance of NSS in students' lives. Moving on with the day's session, a few fun activities were arranged for the students, where the freshers, along with the seniors, participated in teams. Events like tug of war, Musical chairs, Sack race, Spoon balancing, and Dumb Charades were conducted and coordinated by Miss Purnima Mahato. The students thoroughly enjoyed the session. The day began with a visit to nearby villages by the freshers, coordinated by Mr. Ashutosh and Miss Purnima. The students were taken to Mohanpur and Musri Kudar, where they were allowed to freely interact with the villagers. It was a two-way communication process, during which the villagers shared their experiences and the special bond they share with the students of Arka Jain University. After returning, the students, along with their seniors, participated in an Anti-Ragging Nukkad Natak event. Considering the importance of addressing the topic of anti-ragging in college life, the students collectively pledged to fight against ragging and create a ragging-free environment on campus. The performance was guided by Mr. Sumanta Sen. Moving on, there was a Career Guidance session by the TNP (Training and Placement) coordinator of ARKA JAIN UNIVERSITY, Mr. Himanshu Kumar. He provided an in-depth view of the companies that have visited our university and the number of students who have been placed. Following this, a rules and regulations session was conducted by Dr. Babita Sarangi. Afterward, a brief introduction to the Pharma club named "Bhesajam" was given by Miss Purnima. The main motto of BHESAJAM is to spread awareness about mental and physical health, considering the changes in daily work habits and routines. "BHESAJAM" also promotes the commitment to organize activities that advocate for the role of pharmacists in improving health. Furthermore, a sports session was conducted by Mr. Amit Kumar Singh, focusing on providing comprehensive knowledge about the different sports activities that take place within the university. The session covered various types of sports events that occur annually at the university. It also provided detailed information on various sports such as cricket, basketball, football, volleyball, badminton, chess, and table tennis that are played on campus. A Toastmaster session was conducted by Miss Rajkumari Ghosh. The session consisted of a public speaking segment involving the freshers, followed by Ma'am highlighting the aspects that one needs to improve while speaking publicly.

She emphasized the significance of public speaking in personal growth, explaining that practicing public speaking helps build confidence, facilitates overall personality development, and ultimately plays a major role during the campus recruitment process. Moving on, Mr. Alok Moharana conducted a session on the academic calendar and timetable. He provided a detailed overview of the number of holidays available in the academic year. A session was conducted by Mr. Ashis Kumar Some, Deputy Librarian. He provided detailed information to the freshers about the rules and regulations of institute library, as well as the number of libraries present in the university. The session was followed by a video presentation for entertainment purposes, facilitated by Mr. Ashutosha. The video showcased a motivational speech by Swami Vivekananda, intended to inspire the students. A detailed information about the ERP login process and various other processes such as semester registration, viewing marks, and attendance through ERP. This was explained in detail by Mr. Sanjay Thakur and Miss Prajna Routray. Mr. Arvind Kumar Pandey provided a brief introduction about NCC. The valedictory session featured an interactive talk by Ram Kumar, MD Medicine, Director, and Chief Consultant Diabetologist at Citi Diabetes and Multispeciality, as well as Senior Consultant and Diabetologist at Meditrina Heart Hospital. He discussed the prospects of Pharmacy, followed by Mr. Dharmendra Singh, an E.C. member, Pharmacy council of india. The day also included a model-making competition in which students crafted models of various body systems, led by Dr. Shweta. Finally, fun activities like a mimicry session were organized by both senior and junior students under the guidance of Miss Pakhi and Miss Ragini. The program concluded with a lively flash mob arranged by the seniors and freshmen, coordinated by Mr. Ashutosha. The entire induction/orientation program AARAMBH 2023 was a successful event the under the guidance of Dr. Shweta and Mr. Ashutosha.

Outcome: Students came to the realization that opting for the School of Pharmacy as the foundation for their careers was a wise choice. The session also helped them clarify their vision regarding their future prospects and potential accomplishments upon completing their courses, guiding them on the path to a successful career.

Aarambh-2023

DAY-01-[05.08.2023]

The inauguration of the 'Aarambh' program was very beautiful. The event was filled with enthusiasm and anticipation. Through insightful speeches and engaging interactions, the inauguration set the stage for a journey towards growth, learning and fostering a sense of unity among all the attendees. The program started with Saraswati Vandana and the ceremonial lamp was lighted by our Dean sir (Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo) and all the faculty members with few freshers from our batch.

The orientation was mainly organised for B. pharmacy and D. pharmacy student which comes under the department of Health and allied science.

- "B. Pharmacy" refers to Bachelor of Pharmacy program, which is an undergraduate degree focused on pharmaceutical sciences. It equips students with a comprehensive understanding of drug composition and their effect on the human body.
- "D. Pharmacy" stands for Diploma in pharmacy, a shorter course that also covers pharmaceutical basics but is more practical and skill-oriented.

DAY 1ST

It sounds like we all had a fantastic first day with a warm and welcoming atmosphere at ARKA JAIN University. The initiation of the program with a spiritual lighting ceremony by our's Dean sir, Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo sir and Dr. Manoj Pathak sir, along with the participation of other's faculty members, senior students, and freshers, we all have created a sense of unity and community among us present at the seminar room.

The inclusion of seniors students in the program likely helped in easing the transition for freshers and fostering a sense of camaraderie within the university. These types of event often play a crucial role in creating a positive and inclusive learning environment, setting the tone for the upcoming academic journey.

As we move forward in our academic pursuits at ARKA JAIN University, we may continue to have enriching experiences and opportunities for our growth.

It's wonderful for us to hear that Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo sir, the Dean of the school of Health & Allied science at ARKA JAIN University, shared valuable insights about the pharmacy department and the career opportunities within the field of pharmacy. Sir also discussion on the meaning of DSW (Dean student welfare) is also significant, as it shows the university's commitment to student well-being and supporting.
