OBJECTIVE: The celebration of Bharatiya Bhasha Diwas on 10th December 2022 at Arka Jain University aimed to pay tribute to the renowned Tamil poet, Subramania Bharati. The event sought to encourage individuals to embrace and master their mother tongue, while also fostering an appreciation for and learning of other Indian languages.

DETAILS: Bharatiya Bhasha Diwas was organized with enthusiasm and pride in the premises of Arka Jain University. The event witnessed the presence of key dignitaries, including University Director Amit Kumar Srivastava, Vice Chancellor Dr. S.S. Razi, Registrar Jasveer Singh Dhanjal, Campus Director Dr. Angad Tiwari, along with Deans, teachers, and non-teaching staff from all schools. The event commemorated the birth anniversary of Mahakavi Subramaniam Bharati, emphasizing the importance of mastering one's mother tongue and encouraging the learning of diverse Indian languages. Dignitaries shared their insights, and students showcased their linguistic prowess through captivating poetry recitations in multiple languages. Amit Kumar Singh and Sunita Jha adeptly conducted the program, ensuring its smooth flow. The celebration successfully united the university community in a cultural and literary tribute, inspiring a sense of pride in linguistic diversity and cultural heritage.

The active participation of dignitaries, faculty, and students, along with the multilingual expressions of poetry, added vibrancy to the event. The success of the celebration underscores the university's dedication to preserving and celebrating the rich linguistic tapestry of India. The event concluded with a sense of accomplishment, and a vote of thanks expressed gratitude to all participants for their enthusiastic involvement in making Bharatiya Bhasha Diwas a memorable occasion at Arka Jain University.

TAKEAWAY (OUTCOMES): The celebration of Bharatiya Bhasha Diwas at Arka Jain University yielded meaningful outcomes. The event succeeded in inspiring students to take pride in and accept their mother tongue, fostering a sense of cultural identity. Additionally, the encouragement to learn other Indian languages highlighted the university's commitment to promoting linguistic diversity and national integration.
