OBJECTIVE: The significance of "Kranti Ek Veer Katha" lies in its portrayal of courage, sacrifice, and the struggle against injustice. The observance of a death anniversary holds importance as it remembers significant figures in the institution's history, fostering respect and unity. It imparts ethical values and historical awareness, inspiring students through role models.

DETAILS: "Bal Gangadhar Tilak", known as Lokmanya Tilak, was a prominent Indian nationalist and freedom fighter during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. He played a crucial role in India's fight against British colonial rule. Born on July 23, 1856, in Maharashtra, India, he passed away on August 1st, 1920. Tilak was dedicated to India's freedom and rallied the masses against British imperialism. He championed "Swaraj" (self-governance) and used newspapers like "Kesari" to spread nationalist ideals and empower Indians. He emphasized cultural identity, popularizing festivals for unity. Critical of "divide and rule", Tilak advocated for Hindu-Muslim harmony. He prioritized education, founding institutions like Fergusson College, and stood for direct action, famously stating, "Swaraj is my birthright and I shall have it". Tilak's leadership in the Indian National Congress shaped the freedom movement. Despite controversy and arrests for his views, he remains a symbol of courage, unity, and empowerment. His legacy inspires generations highly thinking of justice, equality, and national pride.

With deep reverence for the notable leader of India, the School of Pharmacy commemorated the occasion on August 5th, 2023, through "KRANTI EK VEER

KATHA THE STORY OF GREAT LEADERS EPISODE VI". Distinguished guests, students, and faculty assembled at the seminar hall at Sushruta block of ARKA JAIN University. The event commenced with an enlightening address by Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo and Dr. Angad Tiwari, emphasizing the immense significance of our freedom fighters in shaping our nation's destiny with their remarkable contributions. Ms. Srishti Shreya, a student of B. Pharm, eloquently anchored the event.

The esteemed dignitaries, including Joint Registrar Mr. Jasbir Singh Dhanjal, Campus Director Dr. Angad Tiwari, and Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, paid homage to Bal Gangadhar Tilak with floral tributes on the occasion of his death anniversary. A solemn pause of five minutes was observed, adding to the reverence paid to the enduring legacy of Bal Gangadhar Tilak. The seamless coordination led by Mr. Ashutosh Parida and Miss. Purnima Mahato culminated in a profoundly meaningful and memorable event.
