OBJECTIVE: Conducting an awareness for the citizens on the eve of National Voters Day in a village is a proactive way to engage the community, promote voter awareness, and strengthen the democratic foundation. It encourages active participation in the electoral process and reinforces the idea that democracy is a collective responsibility.

DETAILS: On the eve of National Voters Day, Bhesajam the Pharma Club of School of Pharmacy at ARKA JAIN University, in collaboration with NSS and the NCC, organized a vibrant awareness rally in the village of Mohanpur. The primary objective of this event was to enlighten the villagers about the significance of voting and the pivotal role it plays in choosing the right candidate for a thriving democracy. The event began at 11:00 AM by gathering and briefing about the event. The rally commenced with an enthusiastic gathering of students from the School of Pharmacy, ARKA JAIN University, along with NSS and NCC volunteers. The students were carrying colourful banners and placards, with messages promoting the importance of voting and the power upon citizens. The procession weaved through the lanes of Mohanpur, attracting the attention of villagers. The students engaged in chants and slogans, echoing the essence of democracy and the responsibility of every citizen to exercise their right to vote. Following the rally, an interactive session took place, allowing the villagers to ask questions and share their thoughts on the electoral process. The students effectively conveyed the significance of voting in shaping the nation's future and stressed the impact it has on local communities. The event also featured testimonials from individuals who emphasized personal experiences of how their votes had contributed to positive changes in their locality. This added a relatable dimension to the awareness campaign.

To ensure a lasting impact, the organizing team distributed informational pamphlets detailing the electoral process, voter registration procedures, and the importance of making an informed choice while selecting candidates. The pamphlets were designed in a visually appealing and easy-to-understand format to cater to a diverse audience. The entire event was conceptualized by Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo and successfully coordinated by Ms.Purnima, Mr.Ashutosha and Mr.Barun.

OUTCOMES: The National Voters Day Awareness Rally organized by Bhesajam, in collaboration with NSS and NCC, proved to be a resounding success in educating the villagers of Mohanpur about the importance of voting. The event not only fostered a sense of civic responsibility but also strengthened the bond between the university and the local community.
