PLANTATION DRIVE

Date of Event	05.06.2023
Name of the Event	Plantation Drive on World Environment Day
Type of the Event	Extra-curricular/ Outdoor
Conducted by	Department of Commerce, Department of Management in association with NSS Cell, Arka Jain University and District Forest Office, Seraikela-Kharsawan
Resource Person	Mr. Sameer Kumar Adhikari , DFO, Saraikela-Kharsawan
Venue	JEH Auditorium (Inauguration) and Mohanpur village
No. of Participants	50

OBJECTIVE: The objective of the event is spreading awareness about environmental conservation. The event aimed to actively contribute to the greening of the campus and nearby Mohanpur Village.

DETAILS: On the occasion of World Environment Day, the Department of Commerce and the Department of Management, in collaboration with the NSS Cell at ARK JAIN University, organized a Plantation Drive on June 5th, 2023. The event aimed at raising awareness about environmental conservation and actively contributing to the greening of the campus and nearby Mohanpur Village. The coordination team, led by Mr. Ratan Kumar Singh, Ms. Ankita Singh, Mr. Abhishek Upadhyay, and Dr. Nikita Shukla, ensured the smooth execution of the event.

The event commenced with a formal Lamp Lighting Ceremony, symbolizing the enlightenment towards environmental consciousness. The guest of honor, Mr. Sameer Kumar Adhikari, District Forest Officer (DFO) of Seraikela-Kharsawan, was welcomed to the event. The presence of Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Dr. S. S. Razi, and DSW cum Director-Campus, Dr. Anga Tiwary, along with other dignitaries and university staff, added prestige to the occasion. The Chief Guest, Mr. Sameer Kumar Adhikari, addressed the gathering, emphasizing the urgent need for sensitization towards environmental issues. He highlighted the role each individual plays in shaping a sustainable future and encouraged active participation in environmental conservation. Mr. Paras Nath Mishra, the NSS coordinator, spoke about the significance of individual responsibility in environmental conservation. He underscored the impact that collective efforts can have on preserving the environment for future generations.

The main activity of the day involved the participants engaging in a Plantation Drive. Trees were planted in and around the campus and extended to Mohanpur Village. This hands-on initiative not only contributed to the green cover but also provided a practical learning experience for the participants. The event concluded with a 100m Walkathon, symbolizing a collective step towards a greener and healthier environment. The walkathon fostered a sense of unity among the participants and reinforced the commitment to sustainable practices.

OUTCOMES: The Plantation Drive on World Environment Day at ARK JAIN University was a resounding success. It left a lasting impact on the participants, instilling a sense of responsibility towards environmental sustainability. The collaboration between academic departments, the NSS Cell, and external authorities highlighted the importance of collective efforts in addressing environmental challenges. The institution's commitment to environmental sustainability was clearly reinforced through this event. The Plantation Drive not only added to the green cover but also served as an educational platform, aligning theoretical knowledge with practical experience. The active participation of the Chief Guest, Mr. Sameer Kumar Adhikari, and other dignitaries further emphasized the importance of environmental conservation at both individual and community levels.
