Report on– JAGANNATH RATH YATRA
Great UTKALIYA festival
Held on – 20/06/2023

Date of Event	20.06.2023
Name of the Event	JAGANNATH RATH YATRA Great UTKALIYA festival
Type of the Event	Life skill Development Program/ Harmony towards Cultural Diversity
Conducted by	School of Pharmacy
No. Of Participant	57

OBJECTIVE: To spread the glory of unity and harmony all around.

DETAILS: Religion does not teach to have enmity with each other. When religion, caste or religion comes out of the mind and soul under the veil of religious bigotry, they try to humiliate others to prove their superiority. This is what causes riots in the society. To prove one's religion superior, destroying other's religious symbols and erecting one's own symbols gives rise to the feeling of communalism and mutual estrangement. When furious, it takes the form of religious riots, which calms down only after bloodshed and vandalism. Our civilization has been following 'live and let live' since the beginning. Many invaders came here and stayed here. They got mixed in such a way that they had no separate identity left. Our countrymen consider God to be present in every house. There may be different ways to reach God but he is one. This ideology teaches love and brotherhood. The sad thing is that today man adopts external appearances without understanding the inner truth which is the reason for quarrels. Lord Jagannath is the god beyond science and religion. Jagannath, the Hindu deity whose name translates as 'The Lord of The Universe', has a rich and vibrant history. In Buddhism, he is the symbolic representation of the Buddha in the 'Buddha-Sangha-Dhamma' whereas some Jains consider that 'Jagannath' and his rituals have been derived from Jeenanath of Jainism tradition. It is said that Guru Nanak had visited the Jagannath Temple in Puri in 1506 CE. Salabega was an Odia religious poet of India in the early 17th century who wrote Jagannatha bhajans. He was Muslim by birth but his devotion for the Hindu God made Lord Jagannath stop his Ratha Jātrā (Rath Yatra) in Odisha for him to get darshan. He is the lord of the Universe. Keeping in view on Harmony towards Cultural diversities, the School of Pharmacy observed JAGANNATH RATH YATRA on 20th June 2023 from morning 8 AM. Students and staff members joined this observation with spiritual excitement. A symbolic chariot of chaturdhamurti was placed in the campus. Priest convened the lord of Universe with stotra and hawan. Bhagwat Gita, prarthana and bhajan was offered before lord Jagannath. Finally Maha Prasad was served among the devotees. The Vice Chancellor Dr S. S. Razi, Director- Registrar Mr. Amit Kumar Shrivastav, DSW Dr.Angad Tiwari, Mr. Jasbir Singh Dhanjal and CFO Ms Richa Garg appreciated the effort.

OUTCOMES: Religion does not teach to have enmity with each other. Need to be get involved to spread the glory of unity and harmony all around.
