OBJECTIVE: For a happier and satisfied life people should rely upon healthy relationships. Healthy relationships can increase sense of worth and belongingness.

DETAILS: A session on Fundamental building blocks of positive relationships will be conducted on 3rd Jan 2024. Session will address by Dr Ruturaj Dora the Dean of Capital Institute of Management and Science, Bhubaneswar. Open Dialogue, Trust, and Vulnerability are the three building blocks of a successful and happy relationship. Strengthening all of these areas in your current relationship creates joy and fulfilment in many other areas of our lives. Dr Dora briefed about execution, collaboration, problem solving, communication and trust. Mr Jasbir Singh Dhanjal witnessed the session and felicitated Dr. Dora offering him a shawl and memento. Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo, Dean of SOHAS, ARKA JAIN University introduced Dr Dora to the audience. Among others students and faculty members were the audience

OUTCOMES: The benefits of social connections and good mental health are numerous. Proven links include lower rates of anxiety and depression, higher self-esteem, greater empathy, and more trusting and cooperative relationships.
