OBJECTIVE: To give an Opportunity for students to get Practical Exposure and knowledge of Importance of Mitigation in settlement of disputes and to inculcate Value and Social Responsibility amongst students.

DETAILS: Students from Department of MBA, School of Commerce & Management, Arka Jain University attended a seminar on “Mediation Litigation” organized by Citizen Forum at auditorium of Auto cluster, Adityapur, Seraikela Kharsawan District.

The Chief Guest and speaker for the seminar was Honourable Justice. Shri Deepak Roshan, (Jharkhand High Court, Ranchi) and Guest of Honour was Mr. Vijay Kumar, (Principal District & Sessions Judge, Seraikela Kharsawan).

These two speakers delivered their knowledge and learning in the session. They discussed about what is Mitigation, how and why it is important, what is the process, what types of cases are included for mitigation and what type of cases are not entertained in the process. They also highlighted the terms - “Justice Delayed is Justice Denied” and “Justice Hurried is Justice Buried”. They discussed about the large number of pending cases across courts in legal system of the country, where mediation can help in reducing the number of pending cases in courts.

This seminar was attended by various officials and authorities of legal system, practicing lawyers, businessmen and media persons of the town.

Students had a wonderful exposure of a manufacturing unit in this visit and learnt new things apart from their course. It was a very good experience for them.

Takeaways: Students learnt about Mediation why it is important and how it can help in reducing the number of case pending in various courts across the country. They also learnt what kind of cases are brought in and discussed in Mediation and how to make settlement between plaintiff and suspect.
