CODE VERSE 3.0

Date of Event	14.03.2023 -15.03.2023
Name of the Event	Code Verse 3.0
Type of the Event	Academic
Conducted by	School of Engineering & IT(Coding Club)
No. Of Participant	90

Introduction: In an endeavor to foster coding proficiency and introduce effective team management with new members, the Department of Engineering at Arka Jain University proudly hosted a two-day coding event, CODE VERSE 3.0, from March 14 to March 15, 2023. The event aimed to not only enhance students' coding skills but also cultivate a competitive programming mindset.

Objective: The primary objective of CODE VERSE 3.0 was to inculcate a deep understanding of coding principles among students and facilitate their engagement in competitive programming. Simultaneously, the event served as a platform to introduce new members to the Coding Club, fostering a collaborative and learning-driven community.

Event Structure:

Phase 1 - Eliminator Round:

The first phase featured a quiz competition designed as an eliminator round. The event's interface was crafted by the talented students of the Coding Club. This phase served as a gateway to filter participants for the final round, testing their knowledge and understanding of coding concepts.

Phase 2 - Final Round:

The final round, hosted on HackerRank, challenged participants to solve logical problem statements through coding. This phase was a comprehensive test of coding prowess, problem-solving skills, and the ability to perform under a competitive environment.

Participation Statistics: A total of 87 students registered for CODE VERSE 3.0, demonstrating widespread interest in coding activities. Of these, 65 students actively participated in the main event, showcasing their dedication and enthusiasm for honing their coding skills.

Winners: Mayank Kumar, a student from B.Tech 2nd semester, emerged as the winner of CODE VERSE 3.0, showcasing exceptional coding acumen. Nihal Gupta, a participant from B.Tech 4th semester, secured the position of Runner-up, displaying commendable problem-solving skills.

Conclusion: In conclusion, CODE VERSE 3.0 organized by the Department of Engineering at Arka Jain University served as a beacon for coding enthusiasts. It not only elevated the coding prowess of participants but also contributed to the expansion of the Coding Club with the inclusion of bright talents. The event stands as a testament to the university's commitment to nurturing technical skills and fostering a culture of continuous learning.

Takeaway (Outcomes): The event proved to be instrumental in achieving its intended outcomes. Participants not only enhanced their coding skills but also experienced the dynamics of competitive programming. Moreover, CODE VERSE 3.0 successfully identified promising talents, paving the way for their integration into the Coding Club. The event fostered a sense of camaraderie and collaboration among participants.
