WORLD HINDI DAY

Date of Event	10 Jan., 2024
Name and Type of Event	World Hindi Day
Conducted by	Department of English
Event Coordinator	Ms. Rajkumari Ghosh/ Ms. Sunita Jha
No. of Participants	22

Objective: to spread awareness about the use of the Indian language and the issues with Hindi usage and promotion.

The Department of English at ARKA JAIN University observed "World Hindi Day" on 10 January, 2024 with the primary objective to spread awareness about the use of the Indian language and the issues with Hindi usage and promotion.

About the Event:

The Department of English with an aim to create a global platform to accelerate the promotion of Hindi as an International Language observed World Hindi Divas. The Convenor of the program was Ms. Rajkumari Ghosh, the Program Coordinator of English, and it was coordinated by Ms. Sunta Jha, the Hindi faculty member. Ms. Rajkumari Ghosh delivered the welcome note.

A renowned scholar of Hindi and a litterateur Dr. Shyam Lal Pandey was the chief-guest who delivered a descriptive and impactful talk on the scientific aspect of Hindi language and its potential to be considered as an international language. He said that Hindi is a language which binds India as a country of diversity and it must be promoted by the Indians.

The Director-campus cum DSW Prof. (Dr.) Angad Tiwary said that we must encourage the usage of Hindi for promoting our cultural cohesiveness and expression.

In a brief speech Dr. Manoj Kumar Pathak said that many of Indian freedom fighters and stalwarts of different fields have said that Hindi as a language can bind Indians of different corners.

In this event essay writing and poetry recitation competitions were also conducted in which the winners were awarded by the guests.

The event was conducted by a student Ms. Sheetal Kumari and the vote of thanks was proposed by the Hindi faculty member Ms. Sunita Jha.

Outcome: An understanding among students to value the contributions of Hindi speaker with an emphasis on developing a passion for the language.
