Introduction: Arka Jain University paid homage to the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi, and other brave personalities on Martyr's Day, also known as Shaheed Diwas. The Department of Engineering organized a solemn program on January 30th, at the University Campus to commemorate the sacrifices made by these national heroes.

Objective: The primary objective of the Martyr's Day program was to honor Mahatma Gandhi and other martyrs who sacrificed their lives for the nation. The event aimed to instill a sense of respect and remembrance for the sacrifices made by these individuals.

Program Details: The Martyr's Day program commenced with an address by Dr. Anupam Kumari, setting the tone for the event. The gathering included special chief guest Prof. Uday Pratap Singh, HOD, Department of Commerce, GB College, Ramgarh, Vice Chancellor Dr. S.S. Razi, Director (In-Campus) Dr. Angad Tiwary, Assistant Dean (School of Engineering & IT) Dr. Ashwini Kumar, HOD (CS & IT) Dr. Arvind Pandey, along with other faculty members, and students.

Roshan Kumar Singh, the event host, invited the dignitaries to light the lamp, symbolizing the dispelling of darkness and paying homage to Mahatma Gandhi by garlanding his portrait and offering floral tributes. The Vice Chancellor addressed the gathering, emphasizing the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi, which continue to inspire generations.

The stage was then taken over by students from the School of Engineering & IT, who presented Bhajans and Spiritual songs dedicated to the soldiers who sacrificed their lives for the nation. The emotional and soul-stirring performances resonated with the audience, invoking a deep sense of gratitude and reflection.

The program concluded with a minute's silence observed in memory of the martyrs, followed by the National Anthem. The solemnity of the moment served as a powerful reminder of the sacrifices made by those who laid down their lives for the freedom and integrity of the nation.

E-Poster Presentation:

As part of the commemoration, the Department of Engineering organized an e-Poster presentation on the theme “World of Mahatma Gandhi.” This initiative aimed to engage students in reflecting on the values and principles advocated by Mahatma Gandhi, fostering a deeper understanding of his philosophy.

Takeaways (Outcomes): The Martyr’s Day program successfully achieved its objectives, leaving a lasting impact on the participants and the academic community:

Respect and Remembrance: The program instilled a sense of respect for Mahatma Gandhi and all the martyrs, prompting participants to reflect on their great sacrifices.

Educational Element: The event served as an educational platform, with the E-Poster presentation providing students an opportunity to delve into the world of Mahatma Gandhi and understand his principles.

Cultural Expression: The cultural performances by students conveyed emotions and sentiments, creating a connection with the sacrifices made by the martyrs.

Unity and Reflection: The observance of a minute's silence and the collective singing of the National Anthem fostered unity and encouraged reflection on the significance of Martyr’s Day.

Conclusion: The Martyr’s Day program at Arka Jain University was a poignant and reflective event that successfully honored the sacrifices of Mahatma Gandhi and other martyrs. The participation of students and faculty members, along with the cultural and educational components, contributed to a meaningful observance of this solemn day. The program not only paid homage to the past but also inspired a sense of responsibility and gratitude among the participants, reminding them of the principles that continue to guide the nation.
