Details:

In a poignant ceremony, the cadets of ARKA JAIN University gathered to pay tribute to the 40 Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) personnel who lost their lives in the Pulwama terror attack. The event, graced by the presence of distinguished guests Prof Dr. Arvind Kumar Pandey and CTO Ranjeet Kumar, was a somber occasion marked by symbolic gestures of remembrance.

As India observed the fourth anniversary of the Pulwama attack, the university community came together to honor the brave souls who made the ultimate sacrifice for the nation. The Pulwama attack, orchestrated by Jaish-e-Mohammed (JeM), remains etched in the nation's memory as a day of profound tragedy.

Candles were solemnly lit, casting a soft glow that symbolized the eternal flame of remembrance for the fallen heroes. Flowers were delicately laid, each petal a testament to the gratitude and respect felt towards the CRPF personnel who gave their lives to protect the country.

The date, February 14, is acknowledged as a 'black day' in India, as it signifies the moment when a suicide bomber from JeM targeted a CRPF convoy, bringing the nation to a standstill. The vehicle, laden with explosives, left an indelible mark on the collective consciousness of the country.

During the ceremony, the Vice-Chancellor, in a heartfelt address, emphasized the importance of remembering and honoring the valorous heroes lost in Pulwama. His words echoed a commitment never to forget the supreme sacrifice made by the CRPF personnel. The Vice-Chancellor's message resonated with a profound sense of patriotism and gratitude among the attendees.

The tribute ceremony at ARKA JAIN University not only served as a moment of reflection on the sacrifices made by the security forces but also stood as a united gesture of solidarity and remembrance. It reinforced the notion that the sacrifices of the Pulwama martyrs will forever be etched in the collective memory of the university community.
