SPEECH COMPETITION ON THE ROLE OF SIDDHA MEDICINE IN PROMOTING HOLISTIC HEALTH AND WELL-BEING ON THE EVE OF 7th SIDDHA DAY"

Date of Event	29/1/2024
Name of the Event	SPEECH COMPETITION ON THE ROLE OF SIDDHA MEDICINE IN PROMOTING HOLISTIC HEALTH AND WELL-BEING ON THE EVE OF 7th SIDDHA DAY
Type of the Event	Skill Development and Health Awareness Program
Conducted by	School of Pharmacy
No. Of Participant	40

OBJECTIVE:The objective of Siddha Day celebration in college is likely to promote awareness and appreciation for the traditional Siddha system of medicine. The celebration may include educational activities, workshops, and talks by experts to inform students about Siddha medicine's principles and cultural significance. It could also focus on holistic health, cultural awareness, and provide a platform for networking and collaboration within the field.

DETAILS:On the eve of the 7th Siddha Day Speech Competition on the Role of Siddha Medicine in Promoting Holistic Health and Well-being was organized by the School of Pharmacy at ARKA JAIN University as part of the Viksit Bharat 2047 - Voice of Youth initiative by the Government of India, the event aimed to raise awareness about the traditional Siddha system of medicine and its role in promoting holistic health and well-being.The competition took place in the Block B Seminar Hall, providing a platform for students to express their views on the topic "The Role of Siddha Medicine in Promoting Holistic Health and Well-being." Students from the School of Pharmacy actively participated in the competition, showcasing a commendable understanding of Siddha medicine and blending traditional knowledge with modern perspectives on healthcare.The speeches delivered by the participants were diverse and insightful, covering aspects such as the historical significance of Siddha medicine, its holistic approach to health, and its potential contributions to the well-being of individuals and communities.Participants emphasized the importance of integrating traditional healing practices into contemporary healthcare.A panel of esteemed judges, comprising faculty members and experts in Siddha medicine, evaluated the speeches based on content, delivery, and overall presentation.The judges faced the challenging task of selecting winners from the pool of articulate and well-informed participants. After careful evaluation, the winners of the Speech Competition were announced.The entire event was conceptualized by Dr. Jyotirmaya Sahoo and successfully coordinated by Ms. Purnima and Mr. Ashutosha.

OUTCOMES: The Speech Competition on the 7th Siddha Day, organized by the School of Pharmacy at ARKA JAIN University, proved to be an intellectually stimulating event. It not only celebrated the rich heritage of Siddha medicine but also provided a platform for students to articulate their perspectives on the role of Siddha medicine in promoting holistic health and well-being. This event aligns with the larger vision of Viksit Bharat 2047 - Voice of Youth, contributing to the dialogue on traditional medicine and its integration into the broader healthcare discourse.
